

About

Wardrobe Works Academy is privately owned and run by renowned stylist Allison Turnley, who has over 20 years of fashion retail, styling and business experience. Being a very active Personal, Corporate and Film Stylist, Allison is able to share with her students a wealth of valuable information based on her own personal knowledge and experience, making these fun and informative courses a must for all aspiring stylists and fashionista's.

After having successfully established The Wardrobe Academy – a leading fashion-training institute in South Africa – together with Alice Dunkley, Allison is excited to now offer a refreshed and remodeled generation of Personal, Retail and Corporate Fashion tuition to a new market of aspiring stylist's, retailers and fashion professionals in the UK and Ireland through Wardrobe Works – Academy.

Known for its modern and innovative approach, the Academy is proud to be launching in the United Kingdom market in May 2015.

Created to cater for the growing demand for stylist training which combines both a contemporary fashion ethos with sound technical knowledge, the Academy offers a range of intensive and comprehensive courses for both individuals and corporates, equipping students with the knowledge, practical skills and confidence needed to pursue rewarding careers in the exciting world of Fashion and Film.
